

Camps Farthest Out July 30th-August 4th, 2017

“Behold, I am Doing a New Thing.”
(Isaiah 43:19)

Come join us for a week of Kingdom living! Singing Hills CFO is a family-oriented, non-denominational Christian camp ideal for all ages and abilities. Whole families, extended families, couples, singles, old and young alike will find a place here. If you are hungering for an opportunity to deepen your relationship with Christ, meet Spirit-filled Christians and their families, and sow fertile ground to deepen your prayer life, all in an atmosphere of fun and relaxation, this is the place for you!

Singing Hills CFO meets at:

Speaking Leaders 2017

Each day, God patiently shows Cathy Horein who He is, and that He desires to be a part of every aspect of our lives if we will only yield to Him with joy and expectancy. Cathy truly believes that the Kingdom of God can be found in all areas of our lives — even in the midst of today's world, as messy as it may be. Our identity comes from our relationship with our Lord, not in our list of accomplishments, even for Him. God wants to hear our praises, no matter how feeble they may seem. God wants to be part of our lives, no matter how crazy they may seem. God is in control, so stop wrestling with Him.

After teaching and coaching for 26 years in the Midwest, she and her husband Don moved to Watkins Glen, NY, where she began working as an office assistant for CFO in 2001. Now retired, Cathy was blessed by her job as the Administrative Director for ACFO and by the amazing CFOers she had the privilege to serve each day. Her hobbies include judging women's gymnastics, leading worship at her church, singing baritone in a women's A Capella chorus, being outdoors gardening, boating or hiking in the warm months, and stitching in the cool ones. Don and Cathy have 5 adult children, and 6 growing and ever so huggable grandchildren.

Dave Piatt is married to Jenni Piatt, rostered leader and Financial Director of ACFO. Dave has led speaking and singing in several CFO events. He also works side-by-side with Jenni as a team, offering music and talks. Dave also currently serves as Zone 4 Delegate and Chair of Finger Lakes CFO. He has been involved in CFO now for 15 years, having attended his first event in 2001 to receive "family approval" in order to marry Jenni. Dave is an ordained elder in The United Methodist Church, now serving two churches in New York's Southern Tier. He holds a Doctor of Ministry in pastoral ministry, and has served the UMC since 1997.

The CFO Day

The CFO Day is one of ebb and flow, where we have opportunities to take in (ebb) and give out (flow).

Meditation: (ebb) The beginning of CFO Day, where we enter into a time of silence and focus on God.

Singing: (flow) The group gathers to praise and worship the Lord through song, to unify, and to prepare to hear God through the speaker.

Speaker: (ebb) That part of the day where a leader shares personal life experiences that have deepened his/her relationship with Jesus and his /her life of prayer.

Devotion in Motion/Rhythms: (flow) Here we learn to worship the Lord with our total being, through simple exercises and joyful freedom.

Creatives: (flow) A time to allow God to speak through our expressions in art, writing, drama or other creative endeavors.

Horizontal Hour: (ebb) A quiet time for rest and reflection.

Recreation: (flow) Free time to enjoy the facility, friends and natural beauty.

Prayer Group: (ebb and flow) The centerpiece (center peace) of the day. A place where small groups gather to practice and experience prayer.

Nine O'Clock Prayer: (flow) We become part of a belt of prayer around the world as we pray this short prayer with other CFOer's worldwide.

Afterglow: (ebb and flow) The day ends with a time of fellowship and sharing.

The Whole Day, practiced in total, becomes a life changing experience
